MAPPING SUCCESS WITH DUE DILIGENCE

To close a profitable deal, your business may need to leverage these 7 areas of due diligence expertise:

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY (IP)

Getting your hands around the value of intangible assets. Confirm ownership of IP; assess the quantity and quality of IP assets; valuation of intangibles; evaluate how IP is captured and protected in order to prepare for a transaction; and more

REPUTATIONAL AND REGULATORY

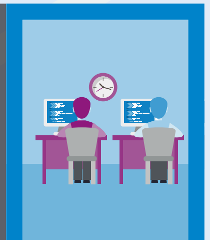
Know whom you are doing business with anywhere in the world. Expert review of more than 11,000 media and news sources; negative sentiment analysis and reporting; background checks; FCPA assessments; political exposure; international sanction reviews; and more

LEGAL

Uncovering the hidden legal liabilities, historical and pending, that come with the deal. Legal history review; bankruptcy searches; past and pending litigation; unpaid judgments and liens; legal entity structure mapping and post-close filing prep; legal obligation review; debt structure and credit analysis; and more

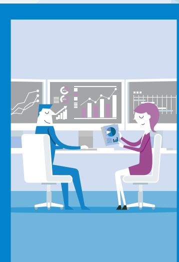
INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (IT)

Looking behind the mainframe to understand the technicals. Web applications review; identification of potential vulnerabilities/cybersecurity blind spots; assessing IT control structure; testing external network penetration; network systems testing; technical assessments; and more



COMMERCIAL

When customers are the center of your ongoing busines success. Evaluate strategy and growth plans; interview customers to assess sales and marketing results; business plan review; provide overall competitive analysis; understand brand value and customer loyalty; and more



OPERATIONAL

Understanding the what, where, and how of your operations. Working capital assessment; manufacturing and operations evaluation; supply chain operations; procurement and supply review; analysis of capital expenditures; capacity analysis; and more

FINANCIAL

Getting down to the bottom line of the financials. Ensure quality of earnings; accounting compliance; review GAAP and SEC reporting compliance; analyze cash flows; review balance sheets; valuation and financial modeling; SG&A review; and more is often a difficult, complicated, and labor-intensive task.

DUE DILIGENCE

HOWEVER

CT Corporation works with acquirers and law firms to streamline the entire process, guiding clients toward the best results and freeing up resources.

CT can help you find your way through your due diligence process to complete a successful deal.

For more information on CT Corporation's due diligence services, contact us at 701-206-2064.